St. Frances X. Cabrini Catholic Church Godparents for Infant Baptism

Be at your best. If you think that the role of parents in choosing godparents is a serious one, so is the role of being a godparent. Being chosen is an honor, and says a lot about the parents' perception of you.

Being a godparent requires investment of time and energy. Make sure that you have the time, the willingness and the faith to live out this sacred vocation. These parents are calling you to be something special for their child: to set an example, help teach their child about the Catholic faith, have a lifelong relationship of prayer, faith sharing and love.

Be there on the "big day." Be available for the Baptism ceremony. Besides saying, "We are," when asked if you are ready to assist the parents in raising the child in the practice of the faith, you will have the opportunity to clothe the child in the white baptismal garment, and to light the baptismal candle. Take seriously the profound yet beautiful words: "Parents and godparents, this light has been entrusted to you to be kept burning brightly."

Don't forget the "big day!" Hopefully you will always remember your godchild's biological birthday, but don't forget this "birthday" into the Body of Christ. Make a phone call or send a card. Better yet, suggest having a get-together to honor this day each year. Bring out and light the baptismal candle, recalling the Light of Christ burning in the heart and soul of your godchild.

Pray for your godchild. Keep your godchild in your daily prayers. The constant prayer of godparents never hurt anyone. On occasion, take time to celebrate Eucharist together, for it is, after all, the source and summit of our faith lives.

Share the faith that's been shared with you. When your godchild is young, introduce him or her to a children's edition of the Bible. Teach about his or her patron or name saint. Attend and offer encouragement at the child's first Communion or share your own faith story as your godchild approaches Confirmation. Continue your lifelong relationship by participating in your godchild's wedding. Remember, being a godparent is about more than an infant Baptism ceremony!
